THAT BUSINESS MEN'S EXCURSION OVER OUR TRACTION LINES.

From the following letter it will be seen that the time for the Business Men's excursion over the Traction Lines from this city to Versailles and Lexington is set for Monday, October 4th.

The excursion will go first to Versailles, where a stop will be made long enough to have speeches of congratulation by Versailles Business Men's Club and a reply from the Frankfort Business Men's Club. Afterwards the cars will proceed to Lexington, where a banquet will be served, specialties delivered, a whirl over the Bell Line and the Trotting Races will be visited. At the conclusion the merry company will then return home.

"Mr. John H. Cassell,
"Secretary of Business Men's Club,
"Frankfort, Ky.

"Dear Sir:—
"On behalf of the Central Kentucky Traction Co., I extend to the Frankfort Business Men's Club a cordial invitation to make a pleasure trip in a body about October 14th, over our new road between Frankfort and Lexington, stopping at Versailles as long as it may please you Club, then continuing the trip on to Lexington, arriving there in ample time to give any or all of your members time to attend the trots, which will be held about that date.

"Yours very truly,
"Central Kentucky Traction Co."

REGISTER! REGISTER!!

Let all the city voters who wish to cast their votes in November next remember to go to their respective places of voting and register NEXT TUESDAY, OCTOBER 1ST. Books will be open from 6 a. m. to 9 p. m. Don't forget it.

BIG BARN BURNS.

The big tobacco and storage barn of Mr. W. B. Jones, on the Silas Noel place, just below Leestown, was destroyed by fire at an early hour on Monday morning.

It was a total loss. There was a big crop of tobacco, hay and other feed, together with a large number of farming implements.

The loss was about $4,000, with only $350 insurance.

OUR NEW DEPOT LOOKS METROPOLITAN.

On Monday morning last our new union depot presented quite a metropolitan appearance, as there were three passenger trains there at about the same time—two L. & N. and the west-bound C. & O. The crowd present looked like one of the grand central depots of a big city.

CUTTING SCRAPE IN CRAW.

Ed. Jones and Henry Shores, two Tennessee "colored" gunmen, employed on the railroads, engaged in a carving match early Monday morning in classic Craw.

Jones slashed Shores with a pocket knife across the throat.
Officer Harrod arrested Jones and lodged him in the workhouse.

CITY COUNCIL FAIL TO ACT.

tion of the Business Men's Club to the City Council to pass the ordinance forbidding stock sales at the corner of Main and St. Clair streets, on county court days, the City Council deferred action, on Monday night, until later on. This is understood to be the end of the matter.

The Council virtually ended the lunch stand business by voting to refund the licenses issued to some of the owners.

It also voted to have the much-needed repairs put upon the Opera House.

OLD FASHIONED FISTICUFF.

On Monday last the new depot was entered by an old fashioned, three-cornered fist-and-skull scrap which was indulged in between Mr. C. B. Johnson and Messrs. P. C. Scanland and Taos, Cunninghamham.

It seems that Johnson had brought some laborers here to work on the Highland Railroad, and he accused the others of trying to get the men away from him, hence the scrap.

HAMMOND & CO.

SPECIAL JUDGE C. G. MARSHALL.

Owing to the fact that Judge R. L. Stout is at the bedside of his mother, at Versailles, he was unable to further preside in the circuit court.

The Governor appointed Mr. C. G. Marshall, of the firm of Beard & Marshall, of Shelbyville, to preside. He assumed the duties of the position on Monday morning.

CLEVER JIM BROWN NEW DEPOT MASTER.

One of the best and most efficient members of the Frankfort police force has been appointed Depot Master of the new Union Depot. Capt. James Brown took charge on Monday last. This is a first class appointment, and is only a return of a clever and efficient gentleman to his first love. Capt. Brown was in the employ of the L. & N. railroad until the tragic death of his gallant father, Capt. Henry Brown, who, it will be remembered, fell in the discharge of his duty as an officer, at the hands of a drunken and infuriated man, a number of years ago. Capt. Jas. Brown was appointed to the police force as his father's successor. Right well has he discharged his trust. His familiarity with his work will make him very efficient in caring for his new charge.

Sold by Capitol Pharmacy.

BURGLAR ENTERS MISS ASHMORE'S HOUSE.

The house of Miss Lucy Ashmore, almost opposite the Institute for Feeble-minded Children, on East Main street, was entered by means of a ladder to the second floor, on Sunday morning.

It seems that Miss Ashmore was at the bedside of her sister, in Versailles.

A small trunk was taken, which contained a small amount of money and some valuable papers. It was found on the ground outside, partially burned.

Among the papers destroyed were some that were invaluable to the family.

The police were notified but have obtained no clue as yet.

The train will leave this city at 7 a. m. sharp, stopping at all stations, and reaching Cincinnati at 10:30 a. m. Returning the train will leave Cincinnati at 6:14 p. m., and reaching home by 11 a. m.

These excursions have been enjoyed by a vast number of people this summer. Fare only $1.25.

WHAT IS A HOME.

What constitutes a home? Folk or furniture? A house, or those who inhabit it? This is a mystery that the wayward pen can not solve with a flourish. A home is expensive, indeed, for it includes all who are born in its charmed circle, and many more besides; but is it a thing that grows, that is subject to evolution? Wake the answer to suit yourself; let it be whimsical or serious; but you may be sure that the spirit of home is not to be found in warehouses, nor in the auction shops. It is an ethereal essence, with a fluency which fills every corner from cellar to garret, and also gives out its perfume even to the stranger that enters the door. And if you have ever had a whiff of this subtle perfume, count yourself fortunate among the children of men.—Joel Chandler Harris in Uncle Remus's Magazine for October.

THE NEW WAY TO TAX MORTGAGES

Growth in Favor of the Registration Plan.

Several States Now Tax at Five Dollars a Thousand When Lodged For Record—Having Good Effect.

It will be interesting when a year has rolled around to estimate the amount of tax that has been collected in Kentucky by the state and by counties on real estate lien notes and mortgage notes. This subject of mortgage taxation is one that Kentucky should very carefully consider. In most states it has been recognized that to tax mortgages is to impose double taxation, since by the borrowing of money upon real estate no new property has been created, but only the same property twice. It has been considered, however, that the state is entitled to some revenue from this source, and other states have solved the problem by levying a registration tax upon mortgages. Under this system, when a mortgage is filed for record it pays a tax of five dollars on each thousand dollars of the amount secured by the mortgage. No subsequent tax is imposed and the entire amount of the tax collected goes into the state treasury.

Where this system has been tried, the result has been a considerable increase in the revenue from taxation of mortgages. The system which we are trying in Kentucky, by which the county clerk is required to make a correct return to the assessor of all mortgages, gives very little chance for any mortgages to escape taxation, so that to adopt in Kentucky the system of a registry twice, it has been productive of more revenue, and might possibly be productive of less; but it is questionable whether the slight additional revenue derived from these mortgages makes up for the injustice done to the borrowers of money. It is not conceivable that a man will lend money at 5 or 6 per cent, and then pay from 2 1/2 to 3 per cent in the way of tax, and yet it would amount to this in very many of our Kentucky cities and towns. Rather than do so, since he can not now, under the law, avoid disclosing his possession of the mortgage, the lender will simply retire from the money lending market. These restrictions curtail the amount of money that will be loaned on mortgages and result in a hardship to borrowers. It should be remembered, also, that the borrowers affected in this case are of the very best class—farmers who need to raise money on their farms; men of small means who desire to borrow money to build homes, as well as men who pledge real estate to aid them in extensive building or industrial operations. The possibility of borrowing the money they need from private sources has always been of great advantage to people of these classes, especially in small towns and cities where there are not so many trust companies making loans. The lender might stand the burden of the tax if he were allowed to add that amount to his rate of interest, but he is headed off in that direction by the usury laws. In many cases he takes chances on this point and by various devices will contrive to collect from the borrower some extra premium by way of offset to the tax he must pay on the mortgage. In this way the burden falls direct on the borrower and must inevitably tend to increase the interest rate on mortgage loans.

That a tax on mortgages does so increase the interest rate on mortgage loans has been clearly proved by the experience of New York.

It is not to be supposed that there will be any opposition to the tax on mortgages on the part of corporations which have money to loan, since, by law, banks and trust companies are not specifically taxed on their mortgage loans. But any banker dislikes to see anything done that restricts the amount of available capital in the state, for such restriction of available capital means restriction of business, restriction of all forms of progress that make the state more prosperous. Experience has, up to this time, demonstrated that the only beneficiaries of the attempt to rigidly tax mortgages are the foreign insurance companies, which come into the state and lend their money and, being resident in other states, do not have to pay a tax on their mortgage.

The same registration tax where it has been adopted is applied to the mortgages filed by railroad and other corporations. This is proving a more effective way of taxing bonds than to take the chance of individual holders being willing to give them in for taxation, which they generally fail to do. In view of the fact that the bonds rarely pay more than 5 to 10 per cent, and three-fifths to three-fourths of this would have to be given up to the tax assessor if the bonds are noted with the assessor. And men will not willingly submit to confiscation.

The subject of taxing credits is one of the most difficult in the realm of taxation, and it is a field where mistakes are most costly, because it is the taxation of this form of property that drives capital from the community, and to drive capital from the community means the curtailment of all the enterprises that build up the community and add to its population and to the value of its real estate.

Mr. Wm. Koenig, Tax Commissioner of the Court of Appeals, has removed his family from Lexington and gone to housekeeping in the house of Mrs. J. M. Chinn, corner Campbell and Shelby streets.

The Frankfort Roundabout

Entered at the postoffice at Frankfort, Kentucky, as second-class mailable matter.

GEO. A. LEWIS, Prop'r and Pub.

FRANKFORT, SEPT. 28, 1907

THAT STUB BOOK DISAPPEARS.

The stub book of the Bailey's Mill precinct of the 1902 election has very mysteriously disappeared from the office of the County Clerk of this county.

Who has it or who abstracted it from the place it was placed by County Clerk Smith is the question which the grand jury would like to have solved.

It looks very much like the parties guilty of that grave offense against the law and the purity of elections were endeavoring to destroy the evidences of their guilt.

Let the law's dragnet gather them in is the wish of all honest men.

INTERURBAN LINE OPENS.

First Car Through From Versailles on Saturday Evening.

As we predicted in our last issue, the rails on the Frankfort & Versailles Traction Line were coupled up on Saturday afternoon, and the first car reached this city shortly after night. It was one of the cars used by the working force on the line.

The second car came over on Sunday and was occupied by the road officials and a few invited guests, who greatly enjoyed the privilege.

Cars used by the road force were run every day for their use only until Wednesday, when the two hour schedule for passenger cars was put in force, commencing at 6 a. m. to last until Monday, October 14, when the regular schedule will become effective and cars will run from each end of the line, commencing at 6 o'clock a. m. and continuing until 11 p. m., probably skipping one or two hours of the evening, in keeping with the order on the other three lines out of Lexington.

On Wednesday morning the first regular car of the line came in from Versailles at 7:35, having made the run from Lexington in one hour and fifty-five minutes, included in which was a stop of ten minutes at Versailles. The car was in charge of man George Thornton, with Jordan as Conductor, Mr. A. F. Smith, Master of Transportation, and Mr. George McLeod, Chief Engineer of this branch, Mr. Henry Bush, Car Dispatcher, together with several others, whose names we could not learn, were on board.

The car remained here until 8:05 a. m., when it started on the return journey.

The fare for the round trip to Versailles is forty cents, and from this city to Lexington is seventy cents—fifteen cents less than by railroad.

This is an achievement which has been long looked for and its accomplishment just now, when so many persons had about come to the conclusion that it would not be finished before spring, comes in the nature of a pleasant surprise.

OLD COLORED MAN ASSAULTED.

Henry Grayson, an old colored man who lives just beyond the city limits, on the Versailles pike, was going home in his wagon, about 9 o'clock on Monday night, when (although he tried to get out of the way), two white men in a vehicle ran into him. This enraged the men when one of them jumped from the vehicle and proceeded to beat up the old colored man with a rock, leaving him on the side of the road.

When found by some gentlemen the old man was nearly unconscious. He was taken home where he lies in a serious condition, his face and one side of his head being horribly beaten up.

SWITZER.

Dr. W. F. Anderson has purchased a fine motorcycle.

Miss Clara Carter is visiting relatives and friends in Louisville this week.

Misses Cleo Carter and Gertrude Smith spent Sunday evening in Georgetown.

Mrs. Amanda Lynn, of this place, is in Versailles this week with her daughter, who is very ill. The many friends of hers express deepest sympathy.

Mrs. D. C. Wheeler and Miss Ruth Smith visited Beechwood Spring last week. They report fine water being at these springs. Also a beautiful country.

Miss Vera Jones gave a birthday reception in honor of her sixteenth birthday last Tuesday evening. Refreshments were served at 5 p. m. Those who were present were her schoolmates and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Lynn were called to Versailles last Friday on account of the illness of his mother.

The boys and girls are expecting lots of pleasure during this winter in skating and coasting.

J. S. WEATHERS.

Sept. 7-41. Frankfort, Ky.

THANKS.

Mr. Church Dennis has placed us under obligations for a box of delicious pappaws, the first of the season. We regret to know that the crop of this fine fruit is very short this season, owing to the late freezes of the spring.

Mr. Dennis will please accept our thanks for this courtesy.

LOST AND FOUND.

Lost, between 9:30 a. m. yesterday and noon today, a billous attack, with nausea and sick headache. This loss was occasioned by finding at the drug store a box of Dr. King's New Life Pills. Guaranteed for biliousness, malaria and jaundice. 25 cents.

"A LITTLE SAWED OFF MAN."

A good one given U. S. Marshal Steve Sharp occurred on Tuesday when the court was about to adjourn for dinner. As is the requirement of court every one in the room is expected to stand up while the marshal makes the announcement. Capt. Sharp is very punctilious about this matter. He thought he saw one man who was not obeying the order and called to him to stand up. A voice from among the crowd sang out "this were feller's a little sawed-off man, and is already standin' up." A visible smile went round the court at the gallant Captain's expense.

Pleasant to take.

HOME ENDORSEMENT.

Hundreds of Frankfort Citizens Can Tell You All About It.

"Home endorsement, the public expression of Frankfort people, should be evidence beyond dispute for every Frankfort reader. Surely the experience of friends and neighbors, cheerfully given by them, will carry more weight than the intimation of strangers residing in faraway places. Read the following:

Mrs. Lou Johnson, of 325 Todd St., Frankfort, Ky., says: "Off and on, for a good many years, I have suffered with a heavy, dull aching pain over the kidneys and across the small of my back, the pain running up my spine and becoming very severe on the least exertion. There was also a weakness of the kidneys which produced an irregular, scalding and excessive condition of the secretion. I was treated by doctors constantly, but their medicine failed to help me in the least. My condition became so serious that I realized the necessity of some immediate relief. About this time, a neighbor spoke so highly of Doan's Kidney Pills that I could not but believe they had some merit. My daughter procured a box for fair trial at J. W. Gayle's drug store, and after giving the remedy a good, fair trial I can now, 'conscientiously' recommend them very highly as they certainly do all that is now claimed for them."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

NOT A BONDED WAREHOUSE.

Judge Cochran rendered a decision in the U. S. Court, on Tuesday, in a case where two colored boys were under indictment for breaking into and carrying away whiskey from the Old Crow bottling house, that the bottling house was not a bonded warehouse, thus holding the indictment not good.

This sounds strange when we consider that all the whisky bottled is "bottled in bond," and the bottling house is in charge of a U. S. Store keeper.

TRACTION SERVICE.

The first regular traction service between Lexington and Frankfort went into effect Wednesday morning, September 24. Interurban cars connect at Versailles with all Louisville and Atlantic trains, east and west bound, between Versailles and Beattyville and intermediate points. This opens up a direct line between East Kentucky points and Frankfort, and also affords the quickest and best route between these points. East bound L. & A. trains leave Versailles for Beattyville at 7 a. m. and 12 noon. West bound trains arrive at Versailles from Beattyville and intermediate points at 10:30 o'clock a. m. and 5:30 o'clock p. m.

MISSOURI CASE LIKE KENTUCKY'S

In the Matter of Trouble With Tax System.

A Tax Commission Has Just Made a Report That Is of Interest In This State.

Missouri has been laboring under a difficulty in its tax system nearly exactly similar to that of Kentucky. A tax commission has been at work in Missouri and in line with the tax commissions of other progressive states it has found no solution of the difficulties of the situation short of a constitutional amendment that will give the legislature greater liberty in dealing with the question; but it also points out that such an amendment is chiefly desirable because it will lead to separation of the sources of state revenue from the sources of county revenue.

The comments of the Missouri tax commission are so pertinent to the situation in Kentucky that we find extracts will be found of interest: "We all agreed that the first step in any tax reform is the separation of the sources of state and local revenue. This change would not require the exemption of any class of property from taxation. The proposed change may be effected by the adoption of a single constitutional amendment.

"The general features of this separation of the sources of state and local revenues may be briefly summarized. The state would discontinue the levy of a general property tax upon the real and personal property of the state, leaving the assessment and collection of this tax to the counties and municipalities for local purposes. This would make a saving of the large expense incident to the present dual system. It would also dispense with the work of the State Board of Equalization connected with the attempted equalization of assessments of real and personal property among the counties of the state.

"The state would thereafter derive its revenue through its inherent general power of taxation upon general subjects of taxation, as by license, corporation taxes, inspection fees and such other forms of taxation as the general assembly may determine.

"The different rates of assessment in the different counties, enforced by the different demands for local revenue, would no longer produce inequality in taxation with reference to the state tax. The remedy proposed is, in our opinion, the only effective remedy. Each community could fix its own rate of valuation as its local needs may require, without subjecting its citizens to the injustice of being compelled to pay an undue share of state taxation.

"There is now a certain kind of home rule in taxation, which consists in the variation of the rates of assessment upon property according to the local needs of the community, some counties paying taxes on 70 or 80 per cent of the real value of property, and others only 20 or 30 per cent. The report of the Tax Commission of 1903 says: 'It is in the bounds of truth to say that no two counties of the state have the same rate for the assessment of all classes of property, and generally speaking, there is absolutely no uniformity as to the proportion of the cash value taken as a basis of the assessed value. Some counties value real estate, so far as our reports show, as low as 20 per cent of its selling price, while others have a 90 per cent basis. Some assess real estate at 25 per cent, and tangible personal property at 50 per cent. The commission concluded that there was an absolute want of equality in taxation.

"This inequality can not be remedied by the State Board of Equalization, for the obvious reason that the high rate of assessment in certain counties, including the city of St. Louis, is enforced by the pressing demand for revenue for local requirements. The board can not raise the assessments of the counties which make a low valuation, as that would be imposing an unnecessary burden upon those communities.

"We see no remedy for this existing inequality and resulting injustice, except in the separation of the sources of state and local revenue.

"Under the plan proposed, the state would retain all of its inherent powers of taxation, except as to the general property tax upon real and personal property, which would be assessed and collected by counties and cities for local purposes. The state now levies a tax upon insurance companies, dramsops, express companies, and inspection taxes, and a collateral inheritance tax. What other forms of taxation may be adopted will be for the General Assembly, in its discretion, to determine. The system proposed requires no change in the existing limitations upon the tax rates of the counties, cities and school districts.

"The change recommended requires no modification of the methods of assessing the property of railroads and other public service corporations by the State Board of Equalization. That system is statutory and its continuance or modification is subject to the control of the General Assembly. Should the present system be continued, whereby the assessed valuation made by the state board is apportioned to the counties, the General Assembly should continue the present system upon such valuation and provide for its direct payment into the state treasury."

NEW DEPARTURE.

Messrs. C. Kugin & Bro. have rented the big store room of Mr. J. L. Waggoner, on Main street, formerly occupied by S. D. Johnson Co., and will shortly open up a five and ten cent store, where every thing imaginable will be for sale.

The exact date for the opening of this new departure in our city can not yet be given, as the repairs on the building and the fixtures and furnishings of the store are being now made.

It is only necessary to say that the new store will be owned and operated by Kugin Bros. to give an assurance of success, and that all who deal with it will be given fair treatment and receive a dollar's worth for every dollar they pay out. These gentlemen commenced business in this city, in a modest way, a few years since, and have steadily advanced until now they are in the front rank of our merchants, and their present stores, on St. Clair street, are doing a splendid, safe business.

THE PASSING OF THE COMMON PEOPLE.

"That ain't no common people any more; they've all got rich or become common. Some are hired by the trust, some are peddlin' insurance an' some are retailin' sick chickens an' rancid butter. Them that stay on the farm know a lot more about cow-ticks than they once did. Take 'em all in all, up one side an' down the other, an' under the bed for good luck, they ain't got the sense that the 's granddads had. They 's more progressive, an' they're highly civilized, but when you bite them by the nose down, what do they mean? Why, jes this: that they ain't no way of swindlin' one that they ain't ketched on to. When you talk about the political principles an' little things like that all eyes are on the board, for to see whar the rake-off is a-gwiner fall. The bluecric gent has e'en about made his appearance, an' his place has been took by the teller that drives a light-nirod sulky an' marries a new gal in ever' county. Of things have just passed away, an' the new have hove in sight w' the plate glaz a flitterin' to the four winds."—Joel Chandler Harris in Uncle Remus's Magazine for October.

U. S. DISTRICT COURT.

The U. S. Court for the Eastern District of Kentucky convened in this city on Monday.

Judge A. M. J. Cochran presided. Capt. S. G. Sharp was in his position as U. S. Marshal, and kept things moving.

Owing to the illness of Mr. Walter G. Chapman, the regular Clerk, Mr. Chas. N. Ward (who has served as Deputy Clerk in the past), was appointed Clerk pro tem.

Judge J. H. Tinsley, U. S. District Attorney, and Judge George M. Davidson, Assistant District Attorney, represented the Government.

The following gentlemen composed the grand jury:

REVIVAL AT SOUTHERN PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH.

The services at the Southern Presbyterian Church are growing in interest and attendance each evening. The sermons which Rev. Sanford Logan, the eloquent preacher, who is assisting Rev. Wm. Crowe in the conduct of the meetings, are full of instruction, pleading and love, and doubtless will produce much more good than has already been accomplished. The meetings will continue next week.

FEDERAL PRISONERS SENT TO GEORGETOWN.

Owing to the condition of the Franklin county jail (its ill-ventilation and cramped cell-rooms), Judge Cochran ordered all the Federal prisoners, sentenced at the present term of the court, to be sent to the Georgetown jail. That jail is a large one, well ventilated and easily kept clean. This secure nerve—of Scott county, is one of the cleverest gentlemen in Kentucky.

Heart Strength

Heart strength, or Heart Weakness, means Nerve Strength, or Nerve Weakness—nothing more. Physically, not one weak heart in a hundred is, in itself, actually diseased. It is almost always a hidden tiny little nerve that really is at fault. This delicate nerve—of Scott county, is one of the cleverest gentlemen in Kentucky. It simply needs, and must have, more power, more stability, more controlling nerve, more governing strength. Without that the heart must continue to fail, and the stomach and kidneys also have these same controlling nerves.

This clearly explains why, as a medicine, Dr. Shoop's Restorative has in the best done so much for weak and ailing hearts. Dr. Shoop first sought the cause of all this painful, pulsating, suffering heart distress. Dr. Shoop's Restorative—this regular governing—alone directed to these weak and ailing hearts. It builds; it strengthens; it offers real, genuine heart help. If you would have strong hearts, strong digestion, strengthen those nerves—re-establish them as needed, with

MERCHANT—In this county, on Thursday morning, at 10:30 o'clock, Mrs. Nancy Merchant, widow of the late Capt. C. W. Merchant, aged 61 years.

Mrs. Merchant was born and raised in this county, her maiden name being Nancy Flynn. She was married to her beloved husband shortly after he was mustered out of the Regular Army, where he served so long and gallantly.

Their married life was a peculiarly happy one, and as evidence, she did not long survive his death, which occurred only a few months since.

She was a devout member of the First Baptist Church of this city.

She leaves two daughters (Mrs. Maggie Nator, of this county, and Mrs. Katie Easton, of Lexington), and one son (Mr. C. W. Merchant, Jr., of this city), to mourn a loving and indulgent mother and friend. Several of her children preceded her to the home beyond. In addition she leaves one brother, one sister and a host of warmly attached friends.

The funeral services will be conducted from the First Baptist Church, this (Saturday) morning, at 10 o'clock, services by her pastor, Rev. Dr. M. B. Adams, and the interment will be in the family lot in our cemetery.

A Good Idea

We notice that the crossing at the mouth of the alley at the First Baptist Church has been laid in grinnoid. This is a good idea, and we hope will be taken up at other points—notably at the mouth of the same alley near the State National Bank. These two crossings, especially, have been nuisances for a long time, for in bad weather, they are nearly always under water or mud.

CONSUMPTION'S WARNING

Inside facts soon become evident in outside symptoms.—Dr. G. G. CHASE.

The aid of scientific inventions is not needed to determine whether your lungs are affected. The first symptoms can be readily noted by anyone of average intelligence.

There is no disease known that gives so many plain warnings of its approach as consumption, and no serious disease that can be so quickly reached and checked, if the medicine used is Dr. Roschke's German Syrup, which is made to cure consumption.

It is in the early stages that German Syrup should be taken, when warnings are given in the cough that won't quit, the congestion of the bronchial tubes and the gradual weakening of the lungs, accompanied by frequent expectoration.

But no matter how deep-seated your cough, even if dread consumption has already attacked your lungs, German Syrup will surely effect a cure—as it has done before in thousands of apparently hopeless cases of lung trouble.

DRIVEN AWAY BY TAXATION

Very Large Capital Withdrawn From Kentucky.

The Case of the Walsh Estate in Lexington Points Out a Dangerous Result of Our Tax System.

The manner in which the tax system of Kentucky may seriously affect its business interests was recently given a very striking demonstration in Lexington. The estate of Mrs. Clara Bell Walsh, amounting to about $750,000, had been for many years managed by the Security Trust company of Lexington, as trustee. A petition was filed recently in the Fayette circuit court, asking the court to terminate the trusteeship, so that Mrs. Walsh might put her property in the hands of a trust company in St. Louis. The Security Trust company, which had been acting as trustee, did not oppose this suit, it being distinctly stated in the petition of Mrs. Walsh that the services of the trust company had been in every way satisfactory, but that the taxes imposed upon her property were too burdensome.

The peculiar feature of the case lies in the fact that Mrs. Walsh, herself, resides in St. Louis and, therefore, claims that her personal property should not be taxed at Lexington in the hands of her trustee. The court of appeals having held otherwise, and Mrs. Walsh, not feeling justified in paying a tax rate of 2.70 on the stocks, bonds and other investments in the hands of the Kentucky trustee, since she could not derive any possible good from the payment of this tax, decided to remove the property to the state of her residence.

A considerable part of the estate was invested in local securities—the bonds of local corporations and real estate mortgages. This will mean that the money will gradually be withdrawn from investment in these local securities and reinvested by the St. Louis trustee in other securities, thus constituting a loss of that much money to enterprises in and around Lexington and Fayette county. It means just that much greater scarcity of needed capital.

The Lexington Herald has been, with great energy and skill, showing the result of this sort of taxation on the business interests of the state. It points out, among other things, the inconsistency in the decisions of our courts, which hold that a man who lives in one Kentucky county and has intangible personal property, such as stocks, bonds, or money, in the hands of a trustee in another county of Kentucky, must pay the tax in the county where the trustee resides; but if the owner of the property moves entirely out of the state, then he must pay a tax in the county where the trustee resides, as well as pay the tax in the state where he takes up his new residence, thus constituting double taxation.

Consumed With Taxation. In her petition asking for the change in trusteeship Mrs. Walsh says: "Plaintiffs desire, if said Clara Bell Walsh be not entitled to a discharge of the trustee, that there be a change in the person of said trustee, and if it can be done that the funds and property in trust be transferred to a trustee duly qualified under and resident in the state of Missouri, where they have their home. Plaintiffs state that the reasons why a change of trustee is desired do not in any manner relate to the conduct or fidelity of said trustee, but are on account of the heavy burdens of taxation imposed on said estate by reason of the residence of the trustee in a state and city different from the home of the beneficiary."

The Herald gives the following facts as to the case: "Under this decision of the court, Mrs. Walsh's personal property in the hands of the Security Trust company would be liable for city, state and county taxes here; and realizing that she, a non-resident of the state, could derive no possible benefit from taxes paid to the city on her personal property, Mrs. Walsh takes this means of getting possession of her property. The removal of the estate to another state is a powerful argument against the wisdom of the system of taxation in force in Kentucky, for though the investments made by the trustee in local securities are so safe and highly regarded as to be retained, yet when a reinvestment is made it is in a large part of the funds invested elsewhere, thus this community is steadily losing its capital and developing poverty."

"A prominent lawyer" says: "In discussing before the Taxation Committee of the Kentucky senate in 1905 the tax system of our state, denounced our personal property tax as necessarily leading either to poverty or perjury. We do not know whether any statistics on the subject are available, but we think it a safe guess that at least three-fourths of all the intangible personal property, such as bonds, notes, and cash, which is assessed for taxation in Kentucky, is in the hands of fiduciaries. It is a fair and manly thing to place upon those least able to bear it nearly all the burden of such a tax."

To Morphine From Doctor's Orders.

Habit Worse Than the Disease.

Dr. Miles' Nerve Cure Me.

When the nervous system has been shattered by the use of deadly drugs there is nothing to equal Dr. Miles' Nerve Cure in restoring it to health and normal activity.

"I feel so grateful for what Dr. Miles' Restorative Nerve Cure has done for me that I must tell for that state of human misery as it suffers as I have. During the three years I suffered from nervous prostration I found no relief except when doctors gave me morphine. To get rid of suffering I took morphine myself as it was the only thing that would give me ease, and now you, who point with scorn at morphine using, how could you, when in such agony, knowing it about the only thing that would give relief, resist it? I knew it was a terrible habit and I knew of its deadly grasp, but I never fully realized its significance until I had used a number of months. Oh, the misery being addicted to such a habit. I resolved then and there to quit it and resolved I would never be a slave to any such demon. About this time I happened to notice Dr. Miles' Restorative Nerve Cure advertised in a bottle. I bought one and using five bottles I can truthfully say I am cured of using morphine. Now, however much persons may doubt it, God in my witness I am cured. This testimonial is unsolicited but I feel my duty to give it in the benefit of the suffering."—MARTIN PHILLIPS, Prescott, Ark.

In variety and interest the October McClure's is remarkable. After a break of two months Ellen Terry resumes her delightful Memoirs with an account of her domestic life called "My Children and I," which has much amusing gossip of Roosevelt, Irving, Bernhardt, Charles Reade and other famous people.

Prof. Munsterberg has an article on "The Third Degree," which points to the legal and medical possibilities of experimental psychology and is full of interest and suggestion for the average reader.

Cleveland Moffett's "Winning the First International Balloon Race," an absorbing account of adventurous sport in the upper air, tells how the first international race was won by a young American with "a second-hand balloon."

The last installment of Mrs. Eddy's life by Miss Milne throws more light on the methods which made for the success of this remarkable woman than anything that has gone before. An illuminating characterization by the only person closely associated with her who "ever studied her with such an unprejudiced and tempered mind" completes this chapter.

Harry Orchard continues his story of the unique war between labor and capital in the mines of far off Colorado and Idaho.

This is a strong fiction number. Willa Sibert rather contributes a delicate psychological study of the intangible relations of a man, his living wife, his dead wife and the dead woman's friend.

Perival Gibbon in his "Meager Life" again displays his art of making soil. Viola Rosebo's "Mr. Weeks" is a humorous character sketch with a setting of army life in the Philippines.

Casper Day completes this brilliant array of fiction with "Slaterville's Apostate," a story of heroism and the triumph of personality over circumstance. There are two poems: "On the Heights," by William Aspinwall Bradley, and "A Roman Garden," by Florence Wilkinson. This is a special art number. There is a series of five lighted color drawings, "The Five Senses," by Jessie Wilcox Smith. The cover design is done from a portrait of Ellen Terry by Watts. Besides these there are illustrations by Jay Hambridge, F. Walter Taylor and others, and many quaint old photographs to illustrate the Terry Memoirs.

FOUND DEAD IN BED.

Col. Geo. W. Lieberth, Collector of Internal Revenue for the 6th District of Kentucky, was found dead in bed at his home in Newport, on Wednesday morning. He had been suffering with some asthmatic trouble for some time, though no one thought it very serious.

He had been a member of the Legislature from Campbell county, Clerk of the U. S. Court of Porto Rico, under Judge W. H. Holt, and Collector.

A Square Deal

It assured you when you buy Dr. Pierce's family medicine—for all the ingredients entering into it are printed on the bottle-wrappers and their formulas are attested under oath as being complete and correct. You are just what you are paying for and that the ingredients are gathered from Nature's laboratory, being selected from the most valuable native medicinal roots found growing in our American forests and while potent to cure are perfectly harmless. And to the most delicate woman a drop of this medicine is a drop of angel oil.

A much better way of using medicine is to take it in the form of a liquid, and this is the only way in which it can be taken. The ingredients used in it are the most valuable medicinal properties of its own, being a most valuable tonic and nutritive, and a most powerful and soothing remedy.

Glycerine plays an important part in the cure of indigestion, dyspepsia and weak stomach, attended by our flannels, heart-burn, foul breath, coated tongue, poor appetite, gnawing feeling in the stomach, biliousness and kindred derangements of the stomach, liver and bowels.

Besides curing all the above distressing ailments, the "Golden Medical Discovery" is a specific for all cases of the menses, irregularities, its catarrh, whether of the nasal passages or of the stomach, bowels or pelvic organs. Even in its later stages it will yield to this sovereign remedy if its use be persevered in. In Chronic Catarrh of the Nasal passages, it is well, while taking the "Golden Medical Discovery" for the necessary constitutional treatment, to cleanse the passages freely two or three times a day with Dr. Sanat Catharrh Remedy. This thorough course of treatment generally cures the worst cases.

In coughs and hoarseness caused by bronchitis, throat and lung affections, consumption in its advanced stages, the "Golden Medical Discovery" is a most efficient remedy, especially in those obstinate, baneful coughs caused by irritation and congestion of the bronchial mucous membrane. The "Discovery" is not so good for acute coughs arising from sudden colds, nor must it be expected to cure consumption in its advanced stage—no medicine will do that—but for all the obstinate, chronic coughs, which, if neglected, or badly treated, lead up to consumption, it is the best medicine that can be taken.

Mrs. J. L. Trundie, of Paris, was the guest of friends here this past week.

Tobacco is fully ripe and corn is fast maturing just now. Grave fears are felt about some of the tobacco, which is yet in the field. However, if the frost does not come in the next few days, the crops will be housed. We recently hope that the fine prospect now ahead of our farmers will not be disappointing.

Mr. J. A. Robinson, who owned a farm lying on the White Sulphur and Elkhorn pike, containing eighty-nine acres, sold the same to his brother, Mr. C. N. Robinson, for $8,000. Robinson Bros. delivered 24 hogsheads of tobacco at the Georgetown warehouse, Saturday. It took nine wagons to haul the lot.

Died—On Saturday, Mr. David Shelton, aged 50 years. He was a tenant of Mr. John Seeman, on the Woodlake pike. The funeral and burial took place at Cedar Grove Cemetery. It will be remembered that Mr. Seeman and his wife, who owned the place on which Mr. Shelton lived, died recently of typhoid fever.

Hon. E. A. Willson, the Republican candidate for Governor, addressed the people of this place, on Wednesday night last, at the Town Hall. He was on his way back from Owenton, where he spoke that day. His address made a good impression.

Our creamery came near being destroyed by fire, on Tuesday. It seems that in boring a well near the building a pocket of natural gas was struck, and Mr. Sallee, the manager of the plant, not knowing of the existence of the gas, struck a match to light a cigar. The gas was at once ignited, and greatly endangered the creamery. It was finally piped away from the building and burned until eight o'clock Wednesday morning. A fine stream of water was struck in the well at a depth of 165 feet. The water is standing 100 feet in the well. The plant has not yet been turned over to the company. The following are the officers of the company:

UNUSUAL HONORS PAID DEAD COLORED MINISTER.

The funeral of Rev. Carey Smithers, D. D., the noted colored preacher was preached on Sunday afternoon, at Versailles, in the presence of a concourse of people, white and black, estimated to number over 4,000. The services continued from shortly after one o'clock p. m. until four p. m. When the procession took up its line of march it was headed by the local post of the G. A. R., Knights of Pythias, Colored Masons, Colored Odd Fellows and U. B. F. The streets were lined on both sides by an unbroken crowd of more than a mile. There were eighty vehicles in the procession.

So highly was the deceased regarded by the white people of Woodford county that the courthouse bell was tolled by order of the county judge while the procession was en route to the grave. This was an honor never paid to a colored man in Kentucky before.

In the death of Rev. Dr. Smithers the cause of a right living, decency and law abiding has suffered a great loss.

The people came from Pittsburg, Penn., Columbus, Ohio, and Indianapolis, Ind., to the funeral.

We were in the pretty Woodford Capital that day and the universal expression, from all classes, was that of profound sorrow at his passing hence.

HUMANE APPEAL.

A humane citizen of Richmond, Ind., Mr. U. D. Williams, 107 West Main street, says: "I appeal to all persons with weak lungs to take Dr. King's New Discovery, the only remedy that has helped me and fully comes up to the proprietor's recommendation." It saves more lives than all the other throat and lung medicines put together. Used as a cough and cold cure the world over. Cures asthma, bronchitis, croup, whooping-cough, quinsy, hoarseness and phthisis, stops hemorrhages of the lungs and builds them up. Guaranteed at all drug stores. 50 cents and $1. Trial bottle free.
